Are you getting enough (3)?

Moving your supervision practice forward

A practical, skills-based, one-day course relevant for health and care professionals from any clinical area who want to reflect on and develop their supervisory skills within a supportive group environment. Exact course content will be negotiated with course participants to ensure relevant skill development and practice opportunities as well as practical problem solving and case discussion. Previous attendance to 'Are you getting enough (1) and (2)?' is required. Group number is limited to 15, so early booking is recommended.

Potential topics include:

- How we frame and talk about our work as a supervisor
- Working with difference in the supervisory relationship
- Creative supervision
- Extended skills practice and feedback
- Live group supervision and reflection
- Supervision of supervision
- Ethical dilemmas
- Continuing personal and professional development

Course fee: £195 per person per course

Early bird fee: £140 per person per course.
